Greg Wade, City Manager, introduced the item and reviewed the health emergency declarations and orders from the World Health Organization, State of California, San Diego County Health Officer, and the City Manager, as the Emergency Services Director, for the City of Solana Beach. He spoke about declaring the emergency in the City of Solana Beach on March 16, 2020 and bringing it to Council to be ratified, the number of steps taken during the developing situation including closing all City facilities to the public, providing services as possible, non-essential staff mostly telecommuting at this time, currently continuing the public works inspections and essential inspections where necessary, rolling out more services in the coming days and weeks with some different protocols, and assessing future projects, services, and events as the circumstances progress with the safety of Staff and the public in mind.

Council and Staff discussed the protection of City Staff and the public, the Governor’s stay-at-home order, efforts of the City Manager, Public Safety personnel, and Staff,

Greg Wade, City Manager, read a written comment received from Mr. Will Ye who spoke about his request and need for field inspection services with social distancing measures and coordination with a single point of contact due to the many financial obligations of projects.

Motion: Moved by Deputy Mayor Hegenauer and second by Councilmember Harless to approve. Approved 5/0. Motion carried unanimously.

Council and Staff discussed halting shutting off utilities, exploring financial assistance for local businesses in need, public outreach and communication, loss of jobs and pressure on residents for rents and mortgage payments, evictions on hold, closures of courts, utilities suspending collections, more discussion with the water district and treatment plant on services, and work to further review other services and needs.

WORK PLAN COMMENTS:
Adopted June 12, 2019
Council agreed to maintain current workplan and postpone more work on the next Fiscal Year Work Plan until the health emergency is over or until further notice.
